Goodman hosts Giunchigliani fundraiser

World's happiest mayor, council members, recognize Giunchigliani's "advocacy for neighborhoods"

Chris Giunchigliani turned her campaign for Clark County Commission up a notch today when she announced that Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman and five Las Vegas Council members will host a fundraising event for Giunchigliani on February 22nd.

Joining Goodman are Mayor Pro Tempore Gary Reese, Councilman Larry Brown, Councilman Steve Ross, Councilman Lawrence Weekly, and Councilman Steve Wolfson.

"For sixteen years I've worked closely with the City of Las Vegas and Clark County to solve problems and fight for our neighborhoods," Giunchigliani stated. "I'm looking forward to continuing that spirit of cooperation as the next County Commissioner from District E."

Mayor Goodman recalled the times Giunchigliani appeared before the Las Vegas City Council. "Chris is a fighter whose reputation of advocacy for neighborhoods is well known," Goodman said. "She's been a big help to local government through her legislative work and a tireless defender for her constituents when she appears before us."

Giunchigliani said she has scheduled a series of fundraising venues to follow the February 22nd event. "Each event will highlight areas I've supported and fought for," Giunchigliani said. "Those who serve as hosts know my energy, commitment and effectiveness. I want to use the same skills to serve Commission District E."
